DUC IN ALTUM

Le pêcheur, de la barque ayant rompu l'amarre,
Abandonné la voile à l'aiguillon du vent,
Quitte le port serein pour l'empire mouvant,
Cingle vers l'horizon tenant ferme la barre.

Gradué plein d'ardeur, comme lui loin du phare
De ton Alma mater tu t'en vas poursuivant
Ta route sur la mer d'un monde dissolvant.
Demeure au gouvernail quand le danger t'effare.

POUSSE AU LARGE, il est temps d'affronter le péril,
De te faire à l'épreuve un courage viril.
En avant! Tu es prêt. Bâtis ta destinée.

Si tu veux de Prévost te dire le soutien
A chaque occasion qui te sera donnée
Montre-toi: vrai "Franco", patriote, chrétien.

BERNARD BARSELOU

"He is a rampart that wîl hold out against malice"

Bernard is a congenial and unassuming chap, blessed with a treasure of golden happiness. All accidents and misfortunes fall from him like water off a duck's back. This happy-go-lucky lad will not let the cares of the business world weigh too heavily on his shoulders. May his beaming smile brighten every mile of road he has to travel.

GEORGES BEAUDOIN

"Un mot suffit au sage."

Après quelques mois seulement passés parmi nous, Georges avait déjà conquis l'admiration de tous par son vaste savoir et son amabilité. Esprit sérieux et réfléchi, il parle peu et observe beaucoup. Il fait ses délices des classiques. Son départ laissera un grand vide parmi nous. Il saura dans la vie, nous n'en doutons pas, se tailler la place honorable que méritent ses talents.

Glee Club 1

EDOUARD BERARD

"I have ever confided myself to facts"

Eddy is a shy, easy-going young man. His shyness, however, seems to have a certain magnetic force, for he has made a host of friends. Studies and "Eddie" were not the best of friends, but he managed to reach his goal. At two o'clock, his "slightly" robust frame wedges itself into his much used Plymouth, while "Ray" prepares to ward off the onslaught of would-be riders. He is undecided what his life work will be.

ROLAND BERARD

"He has a bold spirit in a loyal breast"

Roland is one of the many veterans who returned to school after a jaunt in the service. His is a very likeable personality; Roland never has a mean word against anyone.

He talks little though his company is always agreeable, because it reflects his great living. When Roland steps out into the world, it will be with the good wishes of the entire Senior Class ringing in his ears.

RAYMOND BERNIER

"A chaque jour suffit sa peine."

Raymond prend les choses comme elles viennent, aussi est-il difficile de l'émouvoir. Il est d'un caractère doux et tranquille. Grand et joufflu, il possède une merveilleuse dose d'optimisme et semble plaindre ceux qui ruinent leur santé par une excitation démesurée et une trop grande propension aux idées noires. Raymond nous savons qu'un bel avenir miroite devant vous.

LEONARD BERUBE

"Brevity is the soul of wit."

Humor and seriousness happily blend in Leonard's psyche. This popular young man is the stayer of all incipient imbroglios and the unswerving advocate of peace and joy amongst the seniors. No one regrets his acquaintance with this fine gentleman, who wins his way into your heart. It takes all kinds to make this world, but you belong to the top.

RAYMOND BERUBE

"Plaisir partagé, plaisir doublé."

Raymond est le jeune frère populaire de Léonard. A l'instar de son puîné il jouit d'un tempérament aimable, quoique beaucoup moins turbulent. Raymond affirme une personnalité attirante, aussi est-il l'ami que chacun cherche à fréquenter. Le coeur sur la main, ce camarade se prête facilement à rendre service. Le futur s'ouvre devant lui tel un chemin de gloire où il saura toujours aller de l'avant.

Prevost Staff 4

EDOUARD BOUCHARD

"An honest man is the noblest work of God"

"Eddie", after his hike in the service, resumed his education at Prevost. He soon became a favorite with his classmates, and wore his heart on his sleeves for everybody to peck at. His classmates, cognizant of his qualities for leadership elected him to direct their destinies as class president. Excellent caricaturist, he has been a great asset to the school paper and yearbook. Best of luck Eddie.

RAYMOND BOUCHARD

"Ol' Man River, he keeps on rollin' along"

"Rebel", as he is popularly called, bears the earmarks of a genuine Southerner: languid drawl, nonchalance and joviality. He arrived from South Carolina in his Junior Year and soon became the class sweetheart. Taking our two years of contact with him as a criterion, we are justified in expecting big things from him.

Dramatics 3

RENE BOUCHARD

"Even in the best blood chambered in his bosom"

René has always been one of the most active students in high school. Versatility distinguishes him in whatever sphere he moves. From his freshman year, he has held sundry positions of trust where his qualities of leadership greatly benefited us. "Butch" nurtures high ambitions, and will stop at nothing to make his life a success.

ROBERT BOUSQUET

"L'avenir est aux audacieux."

Son port digne et pensif peut vous surprendre un peu, mais soyez sûrs que cet extérieur recèle une douce nature débordante de bonne humeur. Hors de l'école "Bob" se dévoue également de part et d'autre car sa nature charitable ne peut rester oisive. Si les prophéties nous sont permises nous vous assurons que dans quelques années vous pourrez lire sur une immense enseigne au néon: Robert Bousquet: droguiste.

Businesslike in appearance but very generous, René is ever ready to lend a helping hand to school organizations. He has served on the schoolpaper staff with unflinching devotedness. His pleasant smile has been instrumental in making deep friendships. His placid countenance and courteous ways evince an excellent training that will serve him in good stead in life. Our heartiest wishes accompany him.

ANDRE CHAGNON

"La parole sème, le silence recueille."

Il est plus difficile à André de se dissiper qu'à un chameau de passer par le trou de l'aiguille. De plus, André ne dira jamais la plus petite particule d'un mot lorsqu'il ne sera pas questionné. Avis à certains autres . . . Dans ses quatre années de "High School" jamais les professeurs n'ont eu besoin de le disputer. Toujours à son devoir l'ami de Swansea s'avance ainsi dans la vie, sans bruit, mais comme la source souterraine il ne se tracera pas moins un chemin malgré les obstacles qui surgiront.

ROGER CHOUINARD

"What a piece of work is a man."

A veteran with an unblemished record, "Joe" returned to Prevost last year and immediately made many friends. His devotion to the school is unparalleled. He has used to good advantage his political sense in securing his election as editor-in-chief of the Yearbook. He has already taken his first step in the business and political world, in assuming a lucrative position in one of the local newspaper offices. May nothing stymie your progress on the briar-strewn road to success, Roger!

JEAN-LOUIS CLAPIN

"Il y a une éloquence plus haute que celle de la parole, c'est celle de la vie"—(Marie Jenna)

Jean-Louis est né diplomate. Il peut discuter avec à-propos et chaleur sur n'importe quel sujet d'importance. Il est très à l'aise dans les épineuses questions ayant trait à nos relations internationales. La solidité de ses arguments a acculé plus d'un de ses adversaires. C'est ainsi qu'il se prépare à prendre rang parmi nos honorables édiles de demain. Que la vérité et la justice trouvent en toi un défenseur Jean-Louis et que ta race puisse te compter toujours comme l'un de ses plus ardents combattants. Bonne chance dans tes futurs débats oratoires.

GERALD COTE

"I shall be like a tree—I shall die at the top."

Gerald has made quite a name for himself as student at Prevost. Proficient in all subjects, he excels in French wherein he has cumulated the highest rates. Under a reserved appearance, a warm heart glows for the school and yearns for its expansion. Mankind is now in need of serious young men with a baggage of sound culture and Gerald fits those demands to a T. You may look to a brilliant future Gerald, your past warrants it.

REGINALD DESNOYERS

"La bonne humeur est contagieuse, la joie est conquérante"—Abbé Courtois.

Réginald Bellehumeur lui conviendrait autant car beau temps, mauvais temps, ce type est toujours souriant. Vif par nature, après une petite dispute, notre ami recouvre aisément sa gaieté comme le soleil qui, quelquefois pour taquiner la terre se cache brusquement pour paraître plus brillant ensuite. Où Réginald a-t-il cultivé son éloquence? Nous n'en savons rien; tout ce que nous pouvons affirmer c'est qu'à l'exemple de Jean-Louis notre futur député, Réginald se lancera avec succès dans la carrière des débats.

"Toil, says the proverb, is the sire of fame"

Now we turn the spotlight of our attention on a most genial character, a young man who has elicited the esteem of his classmates by his obliging nature. A scholar of high standing and a courageous athlete, Hector needs but to steel his spine to be a perfect gentleman. He seems to have a bent towards the teaching career; may God bless you Hector and direct your steps to immortal glory.

Gérard moves in our midst unnoticeable but not unnoticed. He is every inch a man, and gentleman from sole to crown. His simplicity is the fountain head of his winning manners. May your assets pay you dividends in your chosen field for life.

ALBERT DUSSAULT

"His worst he kept, his best he gave."

Albert is a genial character whose pleasant smile and agreeable manners have exerted a great influence. If anyone is looking for a level-headed and hard working young man, see "Al", for that he is, and much more. His unbounded devotion to the school has manifested itself in countless ways. His Christian principles have been unequivocal and undeviating, and we hope that Albert will live up to the high standards of his training.

Connaissez-vous Roméo, ce svelte et distingué jeune homme? Sinon, permettez-moi de vous le présenter. Affable, réservé, c'est un fin causeur avec lequel vous pouvez vous entretenir indéfiniment, surtout si vous avez la bonne fortune d'appartenir au beau sexe . . . Quoiqu'un peu . . . nerveux, Roméo chauffe à merveille le "beau bateau" de son père. Nous avons ferme confiance que sur la route de la vie il mène une existence des mieux réussie.

ARMAND GAGNON

"Le bonheur consiste à faire le bien."

Dès 1943, Prévost ouvrit ses portes à ce charmant garçon à la figure rousse, un peu timide mais d'une allure distinguée. Il sut monter constamment dans l'échelle du succès et de la popularité. Par son travail soigné et ses efforts persévérants il est un de nos élèves modèles et la gloire de la paroisse Ste-Anne. Jamais Armand n'a connu de baisses ni de laisser-aller aussi une place de choix lui est-elle réservée dans la phalange des âmes d'élites. Nous avons confiance que tu l'occuperas honorablement.

Maurice est un charmant camarade dont le contagieux sourire sème partout la bonne humeur et la paix. Sous un extérieur placide il cache un coeur courageux, une volonté énergique et la calme assurance de la force qui se sent sûre de progresser et de vaincre. Son départ creusera un vide parmi nous. "Ce qui ne coûte rien, ne mène pas à grand chose."

Notre futur général d'armée est pour tous ses camarades un exemple vivant. Son acharnement au travail intellectuel le place à la tête des finissants. La carrière militaire comme toute autre a besoin d'hommes de caractère, d'intellectuels, de gens consciencieux et idéalistes. Maurice is one of the class favorites. He has the uncanny ability of using his forensic powers to his exclusive advantage. His timely hits have on several occasions paved the way to a Prevost victory. As editor-in-chief of the school paper, he spirited the whole staff and lent his best to make the Prevost an outstanding paper. Good luck to you in college.

Heureusement pour notre diminutif Robert. Aussi sa personnalité dépasse-t-elle de plusieurs coudées sa taille de pygmée. Intelligent et penseur, Robert sait faire fructifier son talent. Doué d'une grande force de volonté, il peut aussi s'acharner avec persévérance à sa tâche. Son air calme annonce non pas l'insouciance mais une vie bien réglée. Personnalité bien marquée mais de la catégorie des timides, Pierre se ressent de la forte influence d'un père journaliste et d'un oncle, juge procureur de district. Historien né, Pierre s'abîme dans la légende des siècles et des peuples. Bref, d'un extérieur paisible et sympathique, d'un tact exquis et délicat il s'est fait aimer de tous: maîtres et élèves.

"I think no virtue goes with size"

Lilliputian in stature, "Gerry" is endowed with a very muscular personality. This diminutive gentleman has made giant strides toward intellectual recognition. Ses manières affables font une heureuse impression sur tous ceux qui ont la chance de faire sa connaissance. Donald s'est rarement fait disputer même par son professeur de français . . . Embrigadé dans la troupe des "Henchmen", ce "senior" courtaud et noiraud en est un des membres les plus populaires. Vif comme une anguille au "basketball", Phil est partout à la fois. Il a un sang d'athlète. Très aimable et toujours joyeux, Philippe ne sait se fâcher ni dire un mot blessant. Il est employé au "Modern Shoe Store". Cette troupe de "Henchmen" serait certainement incomplète si notre Georges était omis. Tranquille et consciencieux Georges a tracé au cours de ses quatre années de High School un sillon qui demain produira cent pour un. Brillant étudiant notre condisciple doit ses nombreux succès scolaires à sa belle intelligence actionnée par un travail acharné et soutenu. Bon et beau joueur de "baseball" il fait aussi bonne figure dans les jeux qu'en classe. "La joie est le soleil des âmes".

Ce jeune homme d'un tempérament sanguin prend la vie sur le bon côté, ce qui ne l'empêche pas de s'adonner à sa tâche avec application. Aucune intempérie ne pourrait lui enlever sa bonne humeur. Larry sourirait même au malin qui aurait saupoudré de sel son dessert. A ce copain qui travaille à la pharmacie Lambert nous souhaitons de continuer à sourire à tout et à tous et de communiquer de sa félicité aux plus moroses.

"Qui trop embrasse, mal étreint."

Tempérament lymphatique, André fait tout avec calme et persévérance. Sa figure tranquille et grave annonce un jeune homme paisible et bon. Plutôt réservé, il préfère le sérieux et le durable au frivole et au passager. Dans ses études sa méthode et son endurance viennent à bout de toutes les difficultés même les plus insurmontables. Ce type jovial fait mentir le proverbe, car tous les jours de la semaine il rayonne d'hilarité. Même ses succès assez modestes ne réussissent pas à estomper l'optimisme de ce gros gaillard. Nous ne doutons pas que "Sunshine" répande dans son futur milieu cette atmosphère de gaieté, laquelle enlève à la vie ce qu'elle a de pénible et agrandit le cercle de nos amitiés.

ROBERT RENAUD

"Excelsior! Always higher!"

A tall, slender, good-looking chap, Robert has been an outstanding basketball player for the past two years. Prankish and garrulous, this chameleon-like youth can assume a very innocent mien after his worst gags. But even those who are the butt of his frolics readily forgive him. "Bob" has intentions of furthering his schooling; we hope success will follow him wherever he goes.

MARCEL ROBILLARD

"L'Idéal de la vie! c'est le problème de notre Bonheur et du chemin qui y conduit."

Marcel est de la catégorie des horloges, il n'arrête jamais. Son ardeur à la poursuite de la science ne connaît ni trêve ni repos. A la fin de sa scolarité il peut jeter un coup d'oeil de satisfaction sur des années bien remplies et savourer la joie du devoir accompli. Son honnêteté reconnue, sa courtoisie exquise, sa ténacité persévérante, sa distinction remarquable le feront toujours rechercher et lui ouvriront la porte du succès. C'est notre vœu le plus cher.

ARMAND ROUTHIER

"He was impromptu and full of unexpectedness."

Ringleader of the so-called "Henchmen", "Roots" is one of the most likeable students in the Senior room. Giving his best efforts to his undertakings, Armand has attained a certain degree of success in athletics but more so in scholastics. Time will tame his rugged nature, temper his buoyant spirit and mould him into a gentleman farmer. Great men are made as well as born, and the unsuspecting universe may have a new star shining in the firmament.

ALBERT TREMBLAY

"Mieux vaut bon coeur que beau visage"

Notre ami Albert réunit les deux, ce qui est mieux encore. Qui ne connaît "Al", ce joli garçon aux cheveux blonds et ondulés; vous savez bien Albert, le frère de 5 autres Tremblay . . . Ses évolutions au "tap dancing" lui valent des tonnerres d'applaudissements à chaque séance que l'école organise. Son bras gauche a conduit notre équipe de baseball à des succès dignes d'envie. Il est un garçon des plus populaires surtout dans le cercle féminin. Fassent vos profondes convictions morales rehaussées par vos aimables qualités extérieures toujours vous réussir dans la vie, cher camarade.

ARTHUR VALCOURT

"Though he knew the value of books, he mistrusted them."

Arthur did not measure up to expectations in his high school days. Too much work and . . . on the outside kept his head in the clouds during school time, and the rest of him joined it there. Exuding joy he knew not to keep it in check. We hope that better days are ahead, and our best wishes accompany him.

DANIEL LATENDRESSE

"And you, my sinews, but bear me stiffly up"

Daniel says: "One step at a time but always forward". All of us certainly praise his ambition. He wants to get somewhere in life, and with such high aspirations our predictions are that he will surely obtain a position worthy of his talents. Indeed he should succeed in this world because he has both brain and brawn to help him accomplish his end. So long, and good luck, Daniel.

GERARD GOYETTE

"Yet can I not of such patience boast"

A towering youth, Gérard is another of the veterans of whom we are proud. With the experience gained in the service, Gérard will undoubtedly forge his way to success in the business world. Positively we are sorry to part with Gérard.

SAMUEL FORD

"Great souls are portions of eternity"

"Benny" is one of the most popular boys on the campus. Endowed with the heart of a child, the courage of a lion, and the spirit of a crusader, "Benny" will rise to fame by dint of his innate energy. Pertinacious he will shatter every obstacle and conquer his way to success. You have been for all a worthy example, and may our sincere wishes be an auspicious augury.

ARMAND ROY

"Nor spoke he one word more than his need."

Armand is made of sterner stuff. You can rise to heaven or crush down to the earth, if you let nature beat you, but we know you'll never say "I quit, I am through". Civil engineering is his chosen field and we know his success will be like a blazing trail. Go forth, you hold the blueprints of success.

LUCIEN PINEAU

"He wrapped himself in inscrutable silence"

Manly and quiet Lucien is the kind that a teacher welcomes. For him school is a place where he must make the most of his time and imbibe as much as he possibly can. His stay with us was short, but while he was with us he proved to be an accomplished young man.

ROGER BERARD

"Un grain d'humour guérit mieux que cent livres de tristesse."

Constamment de bonne humeur, Roger nous a plus d'une fois égayés par ses fines réparties. Il ne dépasse jamais les bornes cependant. Quand il faut être sérieux vous ne pouvez le prendre en défaut. L'important, le devoir d'abord puis ensuite l'amusement. Puisent ces facteurs de succès, Roger, vous ouvrir une brillante carrière.

ROGER MERCIER

Roger is very deserving for having "stuck" it out. Confronted with disease, accidents and other handicaps, Roger proved his mettle in not letting them stymie his studies. We trust that when he and the greater struggles of life will be at loggerheads, he will again, with God's assistance, emerge victorious. We are sorry to part with you Roger, and may God's blessings accompany you.

CLASS PROPHECY

After completing plans for a Trans-Siberian airline with our foreign office in Geneva, Switzerland, I boarded the plane bound for Boston when a distinguished looking, baldheaded gentleman came and sat next to me. To my amazement, it was none other than MAURICE HAMEL, who told me that he had just purchased the world's largest uncut diamond for his flourishing jewelry trade which now comprised thirty of the most elaborate establishments both here and abroad. As we talked over old times he told me that ROBERT HOUDE had just received the award as the most valuable draftsman for Fisher Body Co., in Detroit, Michigan. He also informed me that ROLAND BERARD and that noble Southerner RAYMOND BOUCHARD now had one of the most efficient accounting offices in the state of Massachusetts.

As we alighted from our plane, whom did we meet running out on the runway that had just departed, but ARMAND ROUTHIER. He told us that he was now in the last year of his 20-year enlistment in the United States Navy. It reminded me of school days, as "Roots" was always noted for arriving late.

I made my report at the office of Northeast Air Lines of which I had now assumed the General Managership. Maurice's chauffeur met us in a Rolls-Royce, and we departed for a weekend in Fall River.

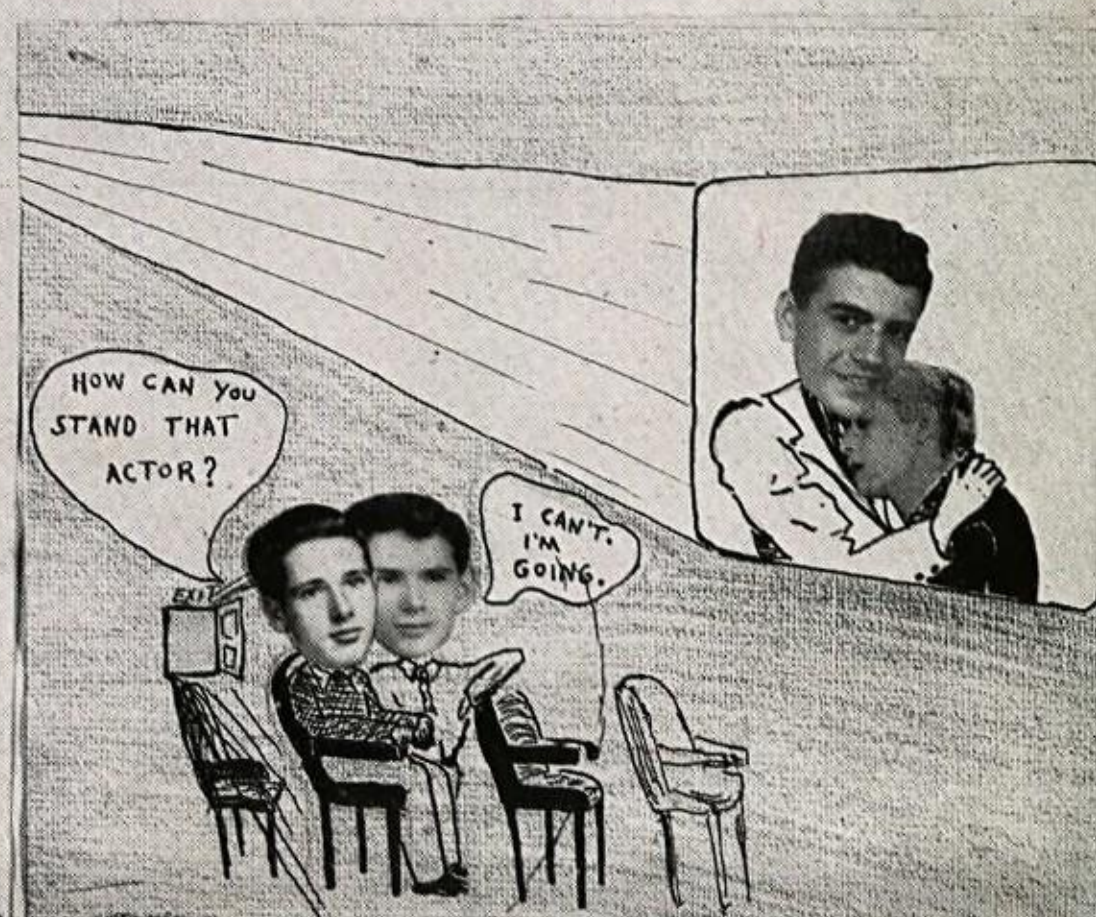

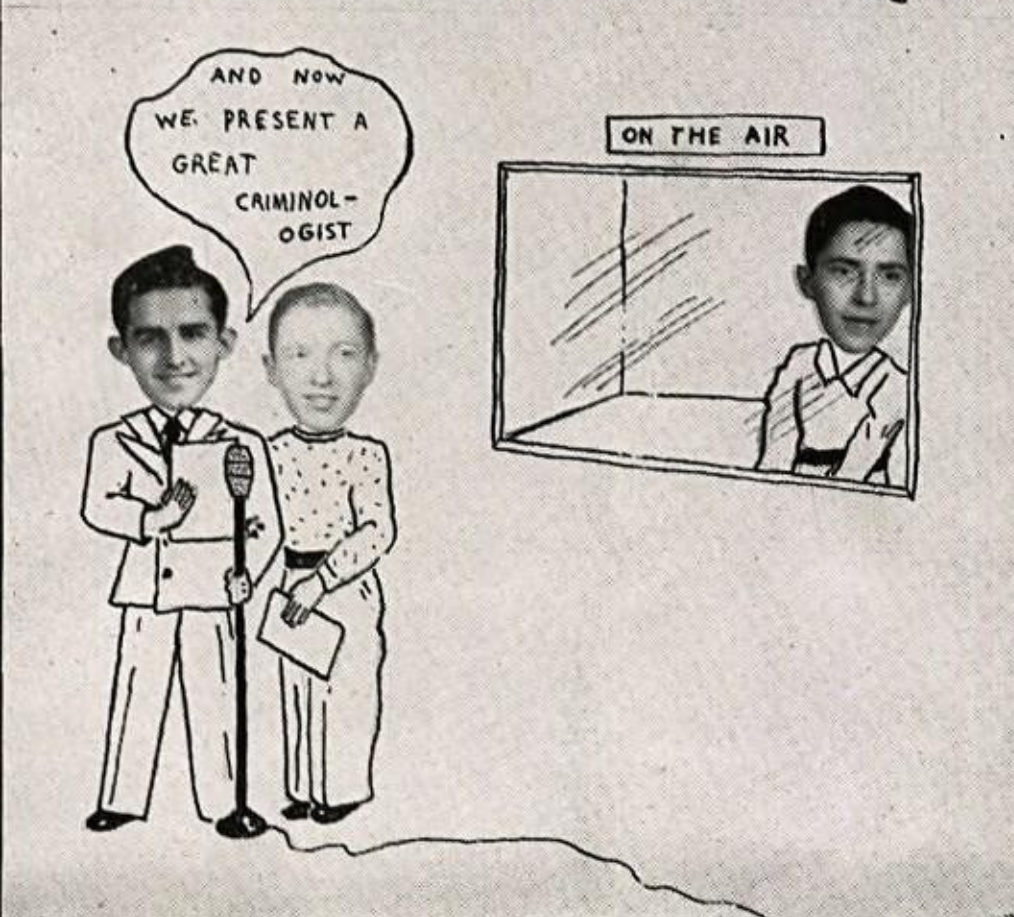

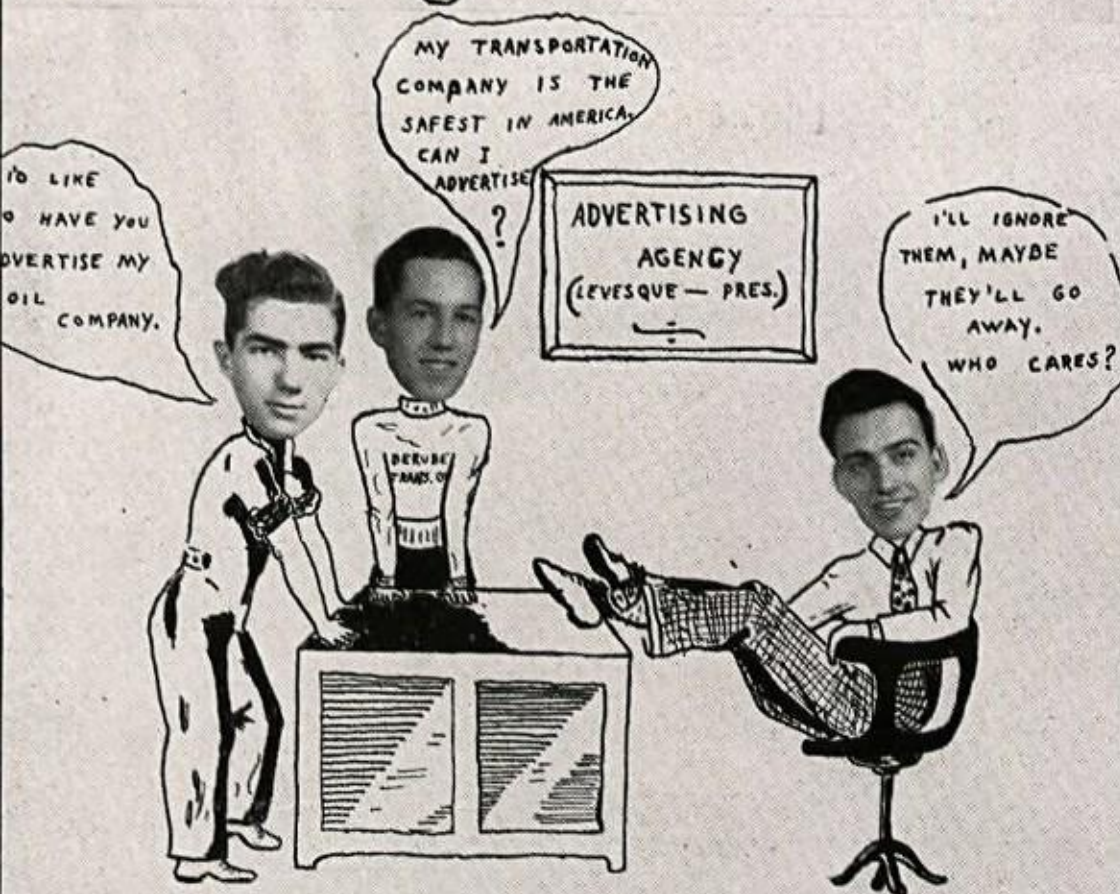

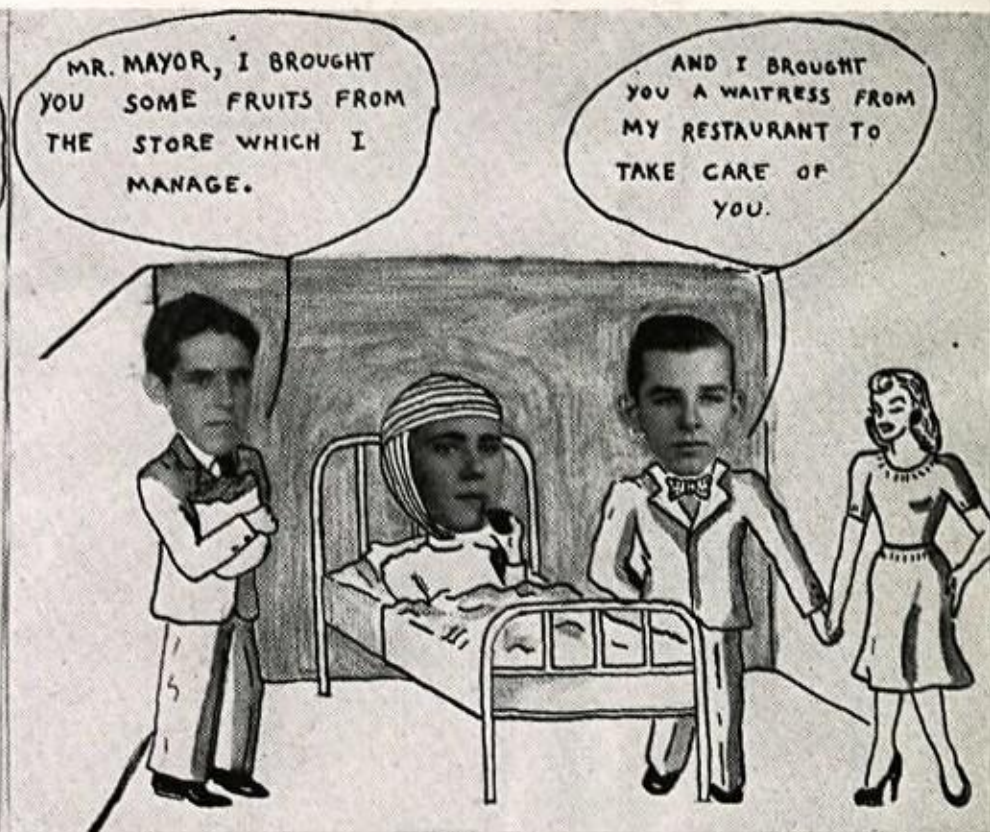

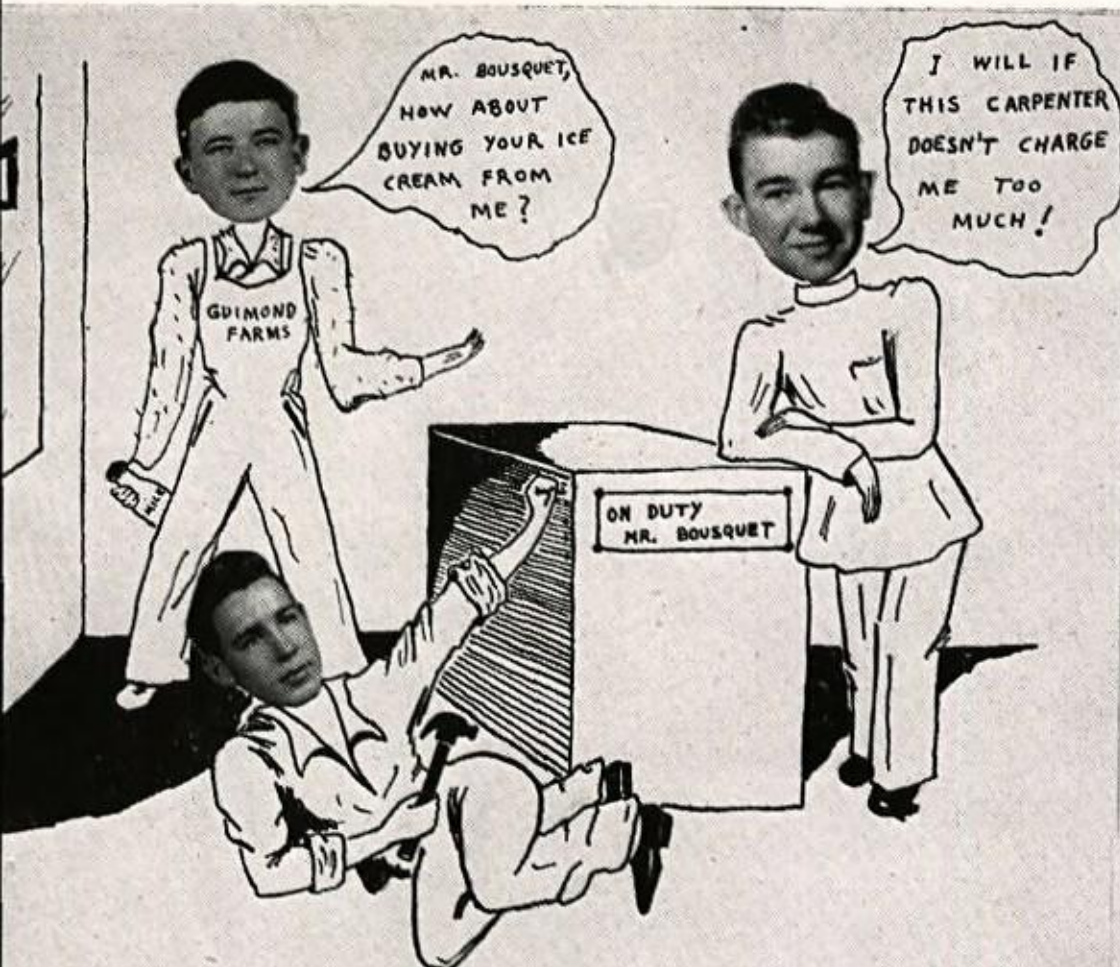

We stopped at Howard Johnson's, near the Blue Hills, for an appetizer of fried clams. In the restaurant we met ANDRE PARADIS who was now a high pressure salesman for the Melville Shoe Corporation in New England. He told us that his bosom friend of high school days, ROLAND FRAZIER, was now the General Manager for Auclair's Market in Fall River.

Upon arriving in the city, I purchased a copy of the "Herald News" and there on the front page was the story about GENERAL ROMEO GUIMOND'S appointment as Chief of Staff of the U. S. Army.

Also on the front page I noticed that JOSEPH DUCAS had recently assumed the head of the state Bureau of Foods and Drugs. Opening the journal I observed that PIERRE LAJOIE was now the Editor-in-Chief.

Maurice dismissed his chauffeur, and I suggested we drop into Liggett's for a few Havanas. Entering the store we met ROBERT BOUSQUET now the manager of the Fall River establishment. He introduced us to the one in charge of pharmaceutical preparations, Mr. LAURENT MARCHAND. We had a light lunch and Maurice suggested a ride around our fair city. Starting off he told me that Fall River was now the permanent home of the United Nations.

As we motored pass South Park, I noticed a huge sign which flashed forth in blazing colors this announcement: Cast Your Ballot for JOHN L. CLAPIN. I said to Maurice: "Let's drop in and see old John L." As we pulled up to a stop in front of the city hall, we met GERARD LAMONTAGNE, who was now the city's Chemical Engineer. As we entered the Council Chamber, the radio engineer motioned us to remain silent. I looked twice for who was he but REGINALD DESNOYERS. After the broadcast he told us that he was now the chief technician for WSAR. While talking with John L., his campaign manager walked in. To my surprise it was none other than ARMAND LEVESQUE who told us that he had taken time off from his job as head of the largest advertising firm in New England to promote John L's. campaign.

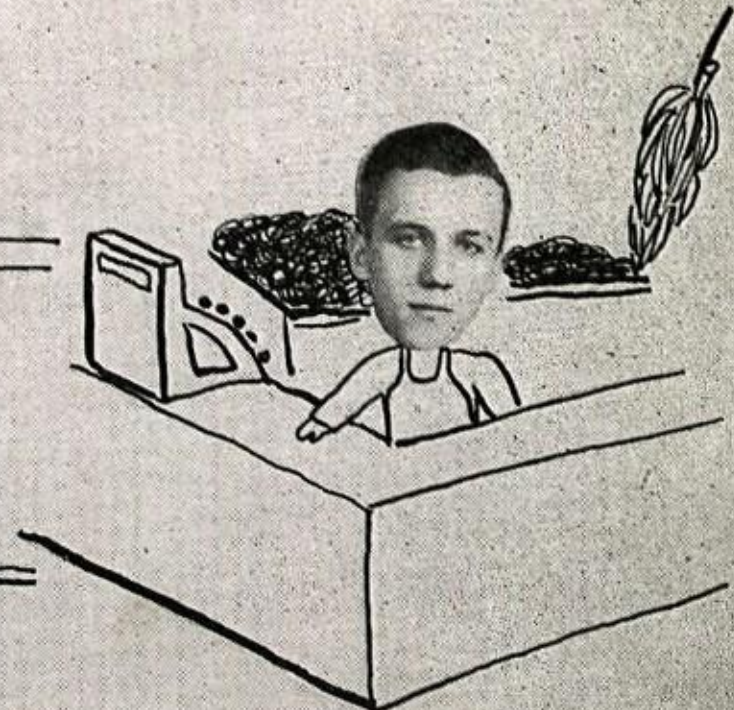

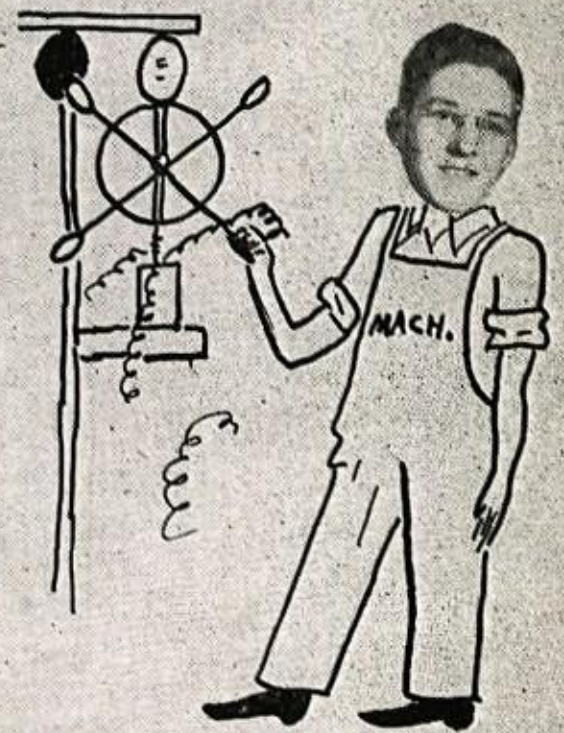

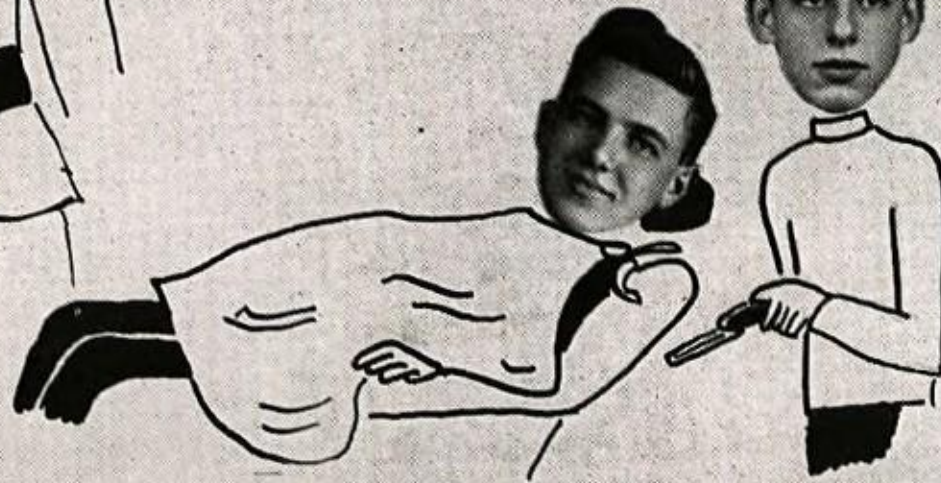

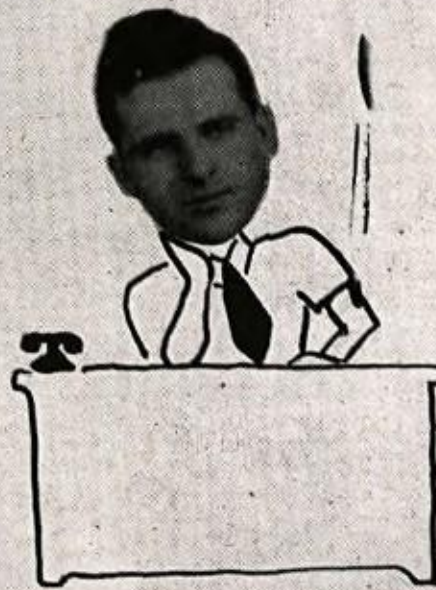

He informed me that ARTHUR GAMACHE was now the Manager of Leo's Ice Cream Co. John L. asked us if we would like to go out to the municipal airport with him and survey the work being done on enlarging the local field.

The three of us got into John L's. new Chrysler, honestly purchased, and riding along North Main St., I noticed a large truck terminal, and I asked Maurice what it was. He told me that it was the Fall River branch of the Berube Transportation Co. and that RAYMOND BERUBE the owner was now one of the most prosperous men in Fall River. Ray did much of the trucking for his brother LEONARD BERUBE, who was now manager of the New England division of Stop & Shop.

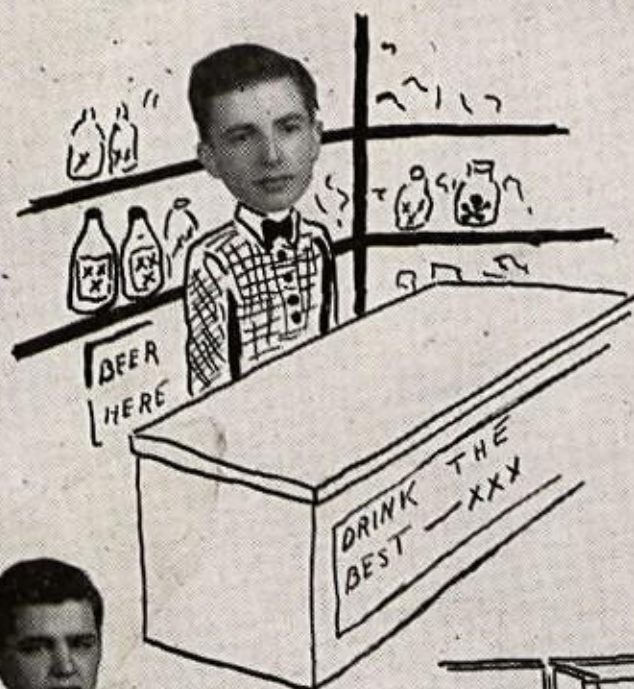

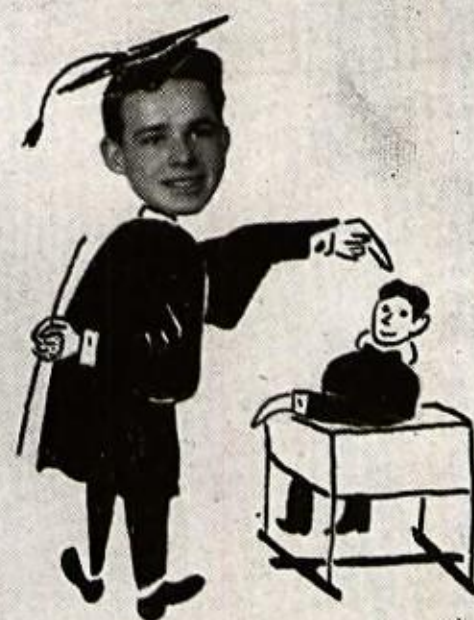

Upon our arrival at the airport, we were greeted by surveyors ROGER MERCIER and EDWARD BERARD who had the contract for all the grading work. While we were there, the plane from New York arrived and ANDRE MOREAU, who was now a consulting aeronautical engineer at Lockheed Aviation, disembarked with ARTHUR VALCOURT, one of the nation's top men in the field of Electronics.

On the way back to the center, I inquired about the city's best eating establishment. We soon found ourselves in a lavish restaurant. The head waiter seated us at one of the ringside tables. The owner walked by and who was it but WILLIAM LEBLANC. He showed us a magazine in which there was an article about MAURICE GIRARD, Captain of the S.S. America, pride of the Merchant Marine Fleet. The article was written by another classmate GERALD COTE now the Editor-in-Chief of "TIME".

Leaving the building, we happened to hear the news echoing from a nearby radio shop: "EDWARD BOUCHARD receives the National Geographic Society Medal for being the first human ever to climb Mount Everest". Then the mayor invited us to spend the evening with him at his box in the Durfee Theatre to attend the premiere of that much talked about motion picture relating the life of the most famous baseball manager of all times. The name of this picture was: THE LIFE OF HECTOR DION, starring ALBERT TREMBLAY as HECTOR DION. I noticed on one of the lodges GERALD GOYETTE, who was well known as the foremost motion picture producer of the day. At our hotel rooms Maurice tuned in a night baseball game and soon we found ourselves gazing into a television screen. There was a heated argument going on and we saw ARMAND GAGNON, manager of the Boston Braves, being ejected from the game.

Rising early, we left the hotel to finish out our tour of the city. As we were leaving, we met ANDRE CHAGNON, the business manager of the Elbe File Co., arriving to meet the out-of-town representative for his company. He told us that GEORGE LEBREUX was now established in his own office at the Granite Block as a Certified Public Accountant. Maurice stopped at a nearby filling station for gas. To our amazement the owner of the garage was RAYMOND BERNIER. As we motored up South Main St., I noticed a magnificent package store. The owner turned out to be BERNARD BARSELOU, the "you-haven't-got-the-zip boy." All of a sudden I felt a pain in my mouth and I asked Maurice to take me to the nearest dentist. As we entered the office I noticed that it was an association of doctors all graduated from Prevoist. PHILIP LAVOIE came over to work on me. He informed me that he was in a partnership with GERARD DUQUETTE, and that MARCEL ROBILLARD, who was a dental technician, completed the trio.

After talking over old times, we left to pay a visit to our Alma Mater. Driving along Pleasant St., I noticed the milk plant GUIMOND and LAPIERRE Milk Inc., entering the plant, Don told us that they were expecting LUCIEN PINEAULT and RENE CADRIN, public accountants, to arrive and audit their books. He also showed us the new addition going up. The head man on the job was GEORGE BEAUDOIN.

Saying goodbye to our friends we reached the school a few minutes later. As we entered one of the buildings, I heard a familiar voice echoing from the "Trig" class. Yes it was ROBERT RENAUD on leave from his position as a professor of mathematics at M.I.T. We then entered the gymnasium and saw RAYMOND GIASSON giving instructions to his squad before a championship game, for the past three years Prevoist had been undisputed champions of the state of Massachusetts.

After bidding farewell to the Brothers, we stopped for a drink at Talbot's Lafayette Pharmacy. The manager was now ALBERT DUSSAULT and with him was his old friend ROGER MORIN now chief machinist for the Craftsman Tool Co.

Maurice and I now had to leave Fall River and move on to New York as we both had pressing business to attend to there. Upon arriving in the busy metropolis I made my way to our New York offices where I signed another five year contract with the "Oil King" of the nation, ROMEO FORTIN, to furnish all the high-octane fuel for all the Northeast airliners serving New England and New York.

I decided that for the evening's entertainment we should take in the Opera. At the Metropolitan Opera House we witnessed RENE LATINVILLE who was now acclaimed as a second "Caruso" in a great rendition of "Il Travatore". After a heart-warming performance we congratulated René in his dressing room. He said he had a surprise for us and showed us the latest copy of Life Magazine. On the cover, we saw the picture of ROGER BERARD, an army 20-year man; the accompanying story stated that he was due to wed the daughter of the President of the United States in two months.

Looking further on, we saw a photo of SAMUEL FORD accepting the Nobel Prize for Engineering. We were happy to see that "Benny" had succeeded in the work he loved so well.

René then told us that History repeats itself by showing us the fact that ROGER CHOUINARD, the Editor-in-Chief of the 1948 Annual was now Editor-in-Chief of Life Magazine.

By this time we all felt a gentle need to fill our stomachs, so we left for the night club frequented by all the Met stars, the "53, 21" Club. We were enjoying ourselves when René called the owner of the establishment. After twenty long years, we met our old buddy, none other than ARMAND ROY.

Being a well to do man about town and big game hunter, he brought us out to his mansion on Long Island and showed us his collection of guns and trophies. He also told us that CHARLES LAFOND now had a chain of pharmacies in Brooklyn, the Bronx and Manhattan.

Maurice then left me to return to France, as he had some very important business to attend to there. I returned to my home in Los Angeles where I was to resume my position after my European jaunt.

After twenty long years, Maurice and I were happy to see that all our former classmates had achieved their ambitions and were living up to the education they had received at Msgr. Prevost High School.

CLASS WILL

We the Seniors of the class of 1948, do hereby bequeath to our heirs the class of 1949 the following legacy.

- To Brother Alexandre: a group of distinguished and well-behaved boys.
- To Brother Francis: two classes of Seniors instead of one.
- To Brother Leon: a responsive group for his French courses.
- To Brother Augustus: a number of smart mathematicians for his Trigonometry period.
- To Brother Eugene: little geniuses for his Physics Class.

JUNIOR A

- To Albert Thérout: a case of Bond Street tobacco so he can keep his collection of 30 pipes well filled.
- To Jean Bérard: the permission to hang around with Georges Dubé for the rest of his life.
- To Marcel Racine: 40 cartons of cigarettes to his friends.
- To Georges Dubé: the Editorship of Life Magazine.
- To Marcel Roy: the right to take over Gene Krupa's title of America's foremost drummer.
- To Normand Bouthillier: a job in the information booth at Grand Central Station so he can put his high pitched voice to good use.
- To Arthur Chabot: a hearing aid so he can hear the brothers giving out the following day's lessons.
- To Roy Gagné: the right to become one of the foremost basketball stars in the Professional Basketball Association of America.
- To Robert Andrew: A lifetime supply of his favorite brand of cigarettes so he won't bother his friends.
- To Fernand Boulay: A series of Mickey Mouse cartoons to use that little smile he always sports around.
- To Robert Lytell: a carton of Fitch's Hair Tonic so he can keep that wave throughout his Senior Year.
- To Paul Allaire: a few thousand dollars so he won't drain his friends' allowances during the coming year.
- To William Dickinson: a beautiful girl somewhat like Lana Turner, Betty Grable and Hedy Lamarr rolled into one so that his date problem will be solved for the next year.
- To Richard Bates: to join with Cloutier to succeed Bud Abbott and Lou Costello.
- To Louis Bizier: to forget his feminine past and become manly in his senior year.
- To Armand Roy: the right of never doing anything wrong so he won't get blamed for anything.

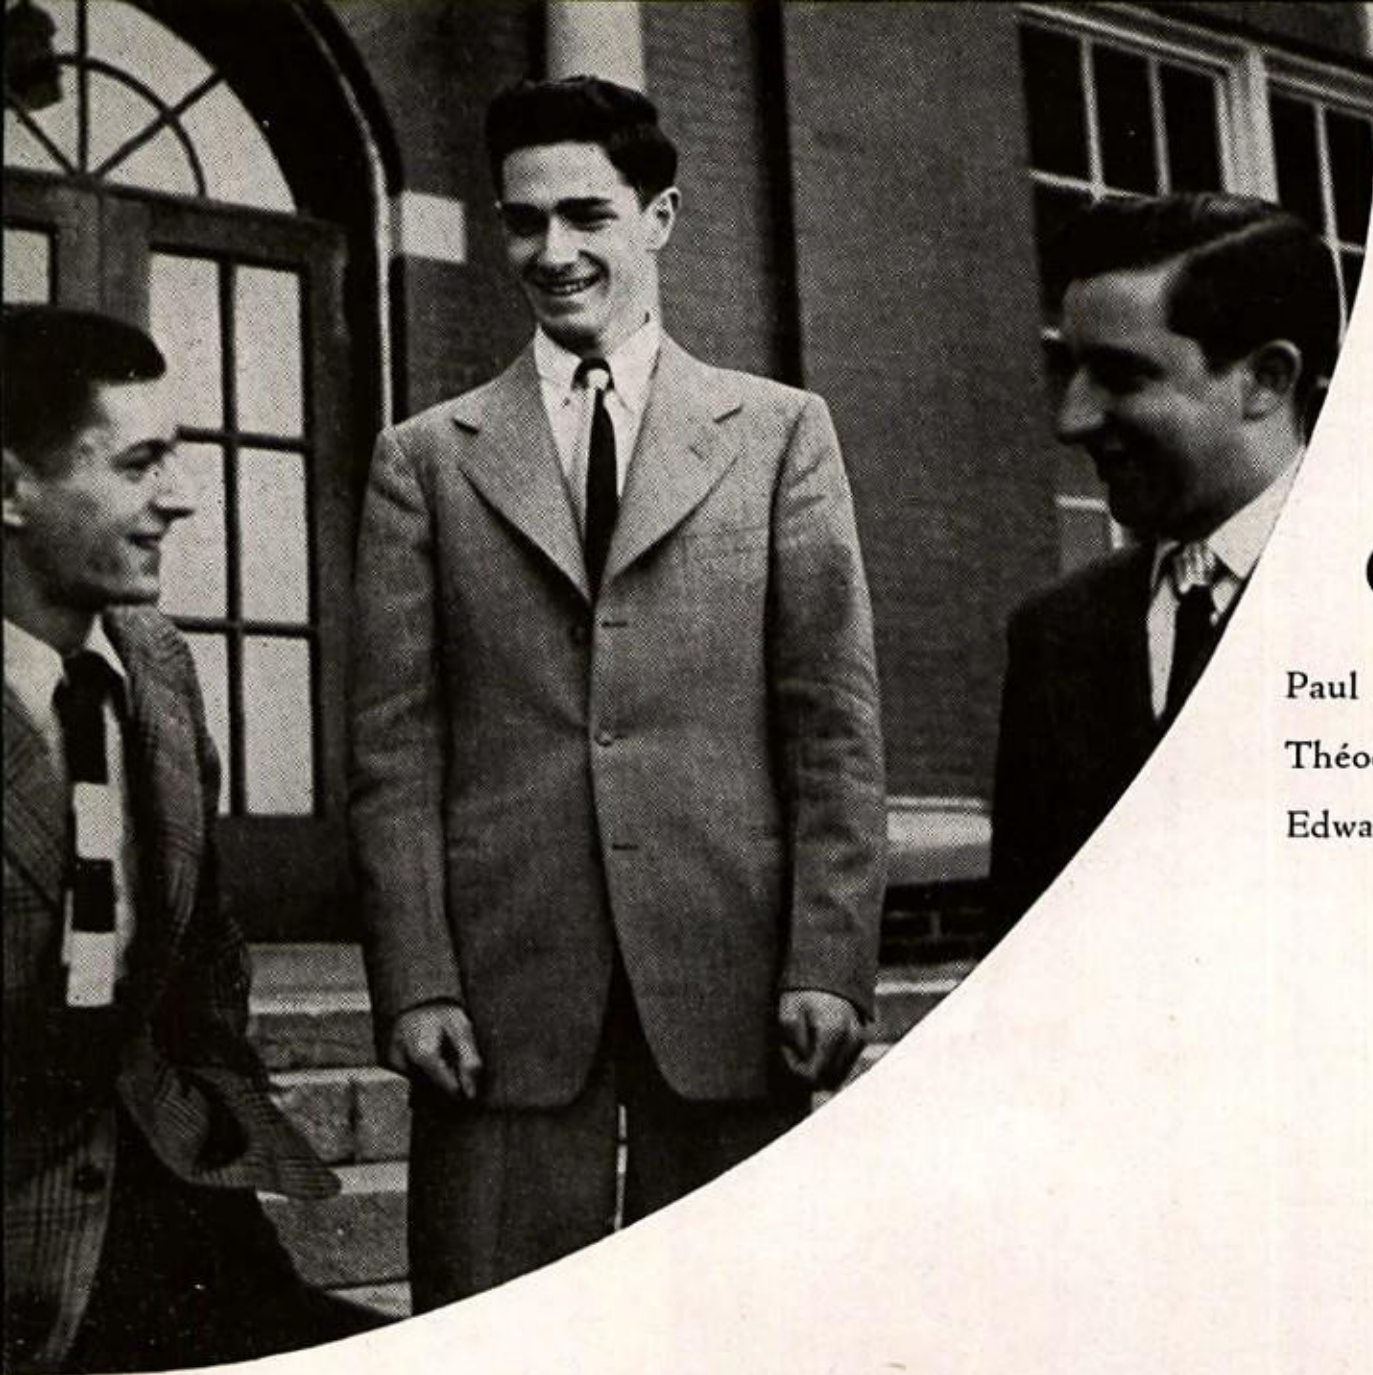

- To William Labrie: a stretch of the beach at Ocean Grove so he can dig clams to his heart's content.
- To William Bisson: a complete reducing course so he won't be called "The Fat of the Land."
- To Armand Caron: a red skin complexion so the fellows won't know whether he's blushing or not.
- To Theodore Bousquet: the right to be the foremost Bass in next year's Glee Club.
- To Donald Ouellette: vitamins A-B-C and Z so he can become the strong man of the class of 49.
- To Raymond Guérette: right to become Prevost's best all around athlete.
- To Edward Mitchell: a Hollywood Contract as Peter Lorre's stand-in.

JUNIOR B

- To Raymond Cyr: a new series of joke books so he can forget his corny ones.
- To Donald Auger: the right to bowl without deadwood.
- To Leroy Dubé: a new laboratory in the wilds of Siberia so he can work on the atomic bomb till he's blown to bits.
- To Alfred Brodeur: a screen contract to star in a series of films on the file of Al Capone whom he imitates well.
- To Normand Ouellette: the right to change the pitch of his voice.
- To Gérard Haddad: the right to be called "Arab" instead of "Greek".
- To Raymond Jussaume: strong vocal cords so that he can cheer for Prevost the rest of his life.
- To Théodore Cloutier: a special bus to bring him from Dartmouth to Fall River so he'll be on time for school next year.
- To Donald Lussier: the right to have lunch periods interrupt his day-dreaming.
- To Paul Bérard: the right to use his brother's lunch cart to get to school next year.
- To Edgar Lagassé: a new kind of baseball glove so that no more errors will be charged against him.
- To Lionel Desrosiers: a new 1948 Chrysler so his father can get to use his truck once in a while.
- To Arthur Canuel: a year round hunting license so he can use those guns he's always talking about.
- To Normand Lafond: the permission to carry on as the class genius.
- To Maurice Dumont: a pair of oars in case his motor boat should conk out on him on Lake Watuppa.
- To Arthur Anctil: permission to be acclaimed as a "Second Al Jolson" in the theatrical world.
- To Eugène Olivier: To practice baseball at his heart's content to enable him to play on the grammar school team.
- To Georges Plante: his own radio program and five beautiful secretaries to help him in his work.
- To Robert Forand: a year's free haircuts at his favorite "Cabbagehead" barber-shop.

THE SODALITY OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN

Already crowned with the merits of seven years of intense Catholic life, the Sodality, under the leadership of our untiring moderator, Brother Francis, has added to its worthy wreath the meritorious fruits of another successful year.

Much credit must be given to Sodality officers who made the C. V. H. meetings the blueprints of their lives. Organizing discussion groups in the classes, and directing Sodality work with painstaking perseverance, their work was highly commendable.

Our new Sodality chaplain, Reverend Raymond Hamel, endowed with the zeal of a crusader, was always on hand to dispense the word of God and uplift a fallen soul with spiritual advice. He received forty new members into the Sodality at an impressive ceremony held in Notre Dame Church.

Vocation Week, World Sodality Day, Perfect Week-End, Five First Saturdays, Bundle Drive, Pilgrimages, Amateur Night, Poor Souls Collection, Holy Childhood Drive, Character Building, are some of the projects carried out by the Sodality, without mentioning the spiritual endeavor with regard to the acquisition of virtues — especially purity.

We, the Sodalists, have dedicated our work and our lives to the Blessed Virgin, and we pray our Dear Mother to remain with us and guide us always.

THE SCHOOL PAPER

Our school paper, The Prevost, is held highly by the student body. It is considered an important factor in the development of strong school spirit besides offering the staff of editors an excellent opportunity to learn the fundamentals of journalism.

To single out the outstanding contributors to the paper might be detrimental to the host of editors who did their best, however little it seems to the censorious eye. However, in pointing out the excellent work accomplished by Maurice Hamel, Paul Allaire and Edward Bouchard we do justice to them and to the paper.

The genial moderator, Brother Eugène, has again expertly directed the school paper through a successful year, and the graduates of '48 wish him continued progress for the year to come.

NOTRE "GLEE CLUB"

Cette année encore notre "Glee Club" a ajouté un nouvel anneau d'or à la chaîne ininterrompue de ses succès en interprétant avec brio les chants sacrés de la messe de minuit et en présentant au public un "Minstrel Show" exécuté à la perfection.

Outre ces démonstrations sans précédent dans les annales de Pré-vost, cette bonifiante organisation, sous l'habile direction du Rév. Frère Eugène, secondé par M. Dominateur Plante, notre pianiste attitré, permet à nos virtuoses en herbe de développer leurs talents pour pouvoir plus tard jeter leur lustre parmi les étoiles musicales.

Nous présentons nos plus sincères félicitations à tous les membres du "Glee Club" et à son réputé directeur et les assurons de nos encouragements les plus chaleureux.

Armand Gagnon

THE PREVOST ORCHESTRA

Made up predominantly of younger talent, the Prevost Orchestra made its auspicious debut at the annual Amateur Night. Many wondered about its rejuvenation, but under the enthusiastic leadership of Mr. Louis P. Gamache, the orchestra picked up immensely. Once more it delighted audiences by a vast repertoire of classical and semi-classical selections.

The 30-piece ensemble was honored to play at the twenty-fifth anniversary of Brother Alexander, and for many distinguished audiences throughout the city.

The Prevost Orchestra strove to be both artistic and entertaining. It made us appreciate the value of musical education and taste the joy that comes from the combining of talents into a single body of musicians.

BASKETBALL

The Prevost student body, namely the Basketball candidates waxed enthusiastic when Mr. Stephen Nawrocki was appointed hoop mentor. The former Durfee coach was bringing a wealth of experience, psychology and knowledge of the game which proved invaluable to the current edition. In fact, the Maple Leafs enjoyed their most successful season since the inception of the sport, winning eleven and dropping eight decisions.

Coach Nawrocki is a staunch believer in hard work, discipline and punctuality. He untiringly drilled this threefold program into his charges and eventually it paid dividends. The boys who had the privilege of being tutored by this unselfish and devoted man owe him an unpayable debt of gratitude. Coaching Basketball at the Eastern Avenue institution has been and will always be an ungrateful task, as long as athletic accommodations remain in the status quo. Therefore our hoop pilot deserves great credit for his remarkable achievement in the face of terrific handicaps.

They opened the regular season in lightning fashion, copping their first five verdicts over rugged opposition. This unprecedented achievement allowed Prevost to take possession of first place in the league standing for the first time in the history of the school. However, January 30, was the fateful night the Maple Leafs were to taste the bitter fruits of defeat. Dartmouth, always a tartar on its own floor, refused to show any mercy and thus became the first team to humiliate the East Enders in league play. As if stricken by panic our basketeters lost the next two contests before bounding back against Dighton. Oddly enough, the White and Blue was the only team capable of toppling Dighton on its own court.

The victories hung up by Prevost on the hardwood were the net result of good coaching, unselfish teamwork and an undeniable fighting spirit, the latter being perhaps the most distinctive characteristic of the team. As a matter of fact, our present aggregation could not boast of an outstanding star. Consequently, such a record would have been unattainable without the cooperative efforts of all the players and their eagerness to carry out the coach's assignments.

Robert Renaud, our six-foot guard, deserves special recognition for his inspiring and relentless play. Playing his second year of basketball, he progressed by leaps and bounds. His backboard clearance job more than once kept Prevost in the thick of the fray and was something to marvel at. His services are going to be sorely missed next year.

Roger Morin: this name is synonymous of grit and determination. Overbubbling with school spirit, Roger never quit even after being injured early in the season. As soon as he received permission from his physician to resume his playing chores, this blond dynamo immediately injected new life in his teammates. He was our side-court, set-shot artist especially at Dighton where he broke the backs of the Gold and Blue hoopsters with his deadly shots.

Samuel "Benny" Ford, a veteran, was released from army duty right in the nick of time. Although bothered by short-windedness, Benny was a model of steadfastness, willpower and readiness to help in a clutch. Mr. Nawrocki is still wondering how he would have been able to carry on without him. This young man's sterling character, unbounded courage and indomitable spirit have set a beautiful pattern that the future Prevost hoopsters may well follow.

Hector "Chocolate" Dion is the only Senior who can claim the distinction of having played four years for his Alma Mater. His remarkable ball-handling at times dazzled the opposition. He teamed up perfectly with Renaud. His experience and uncanny accuracy on long shots turned the tide in many a game.

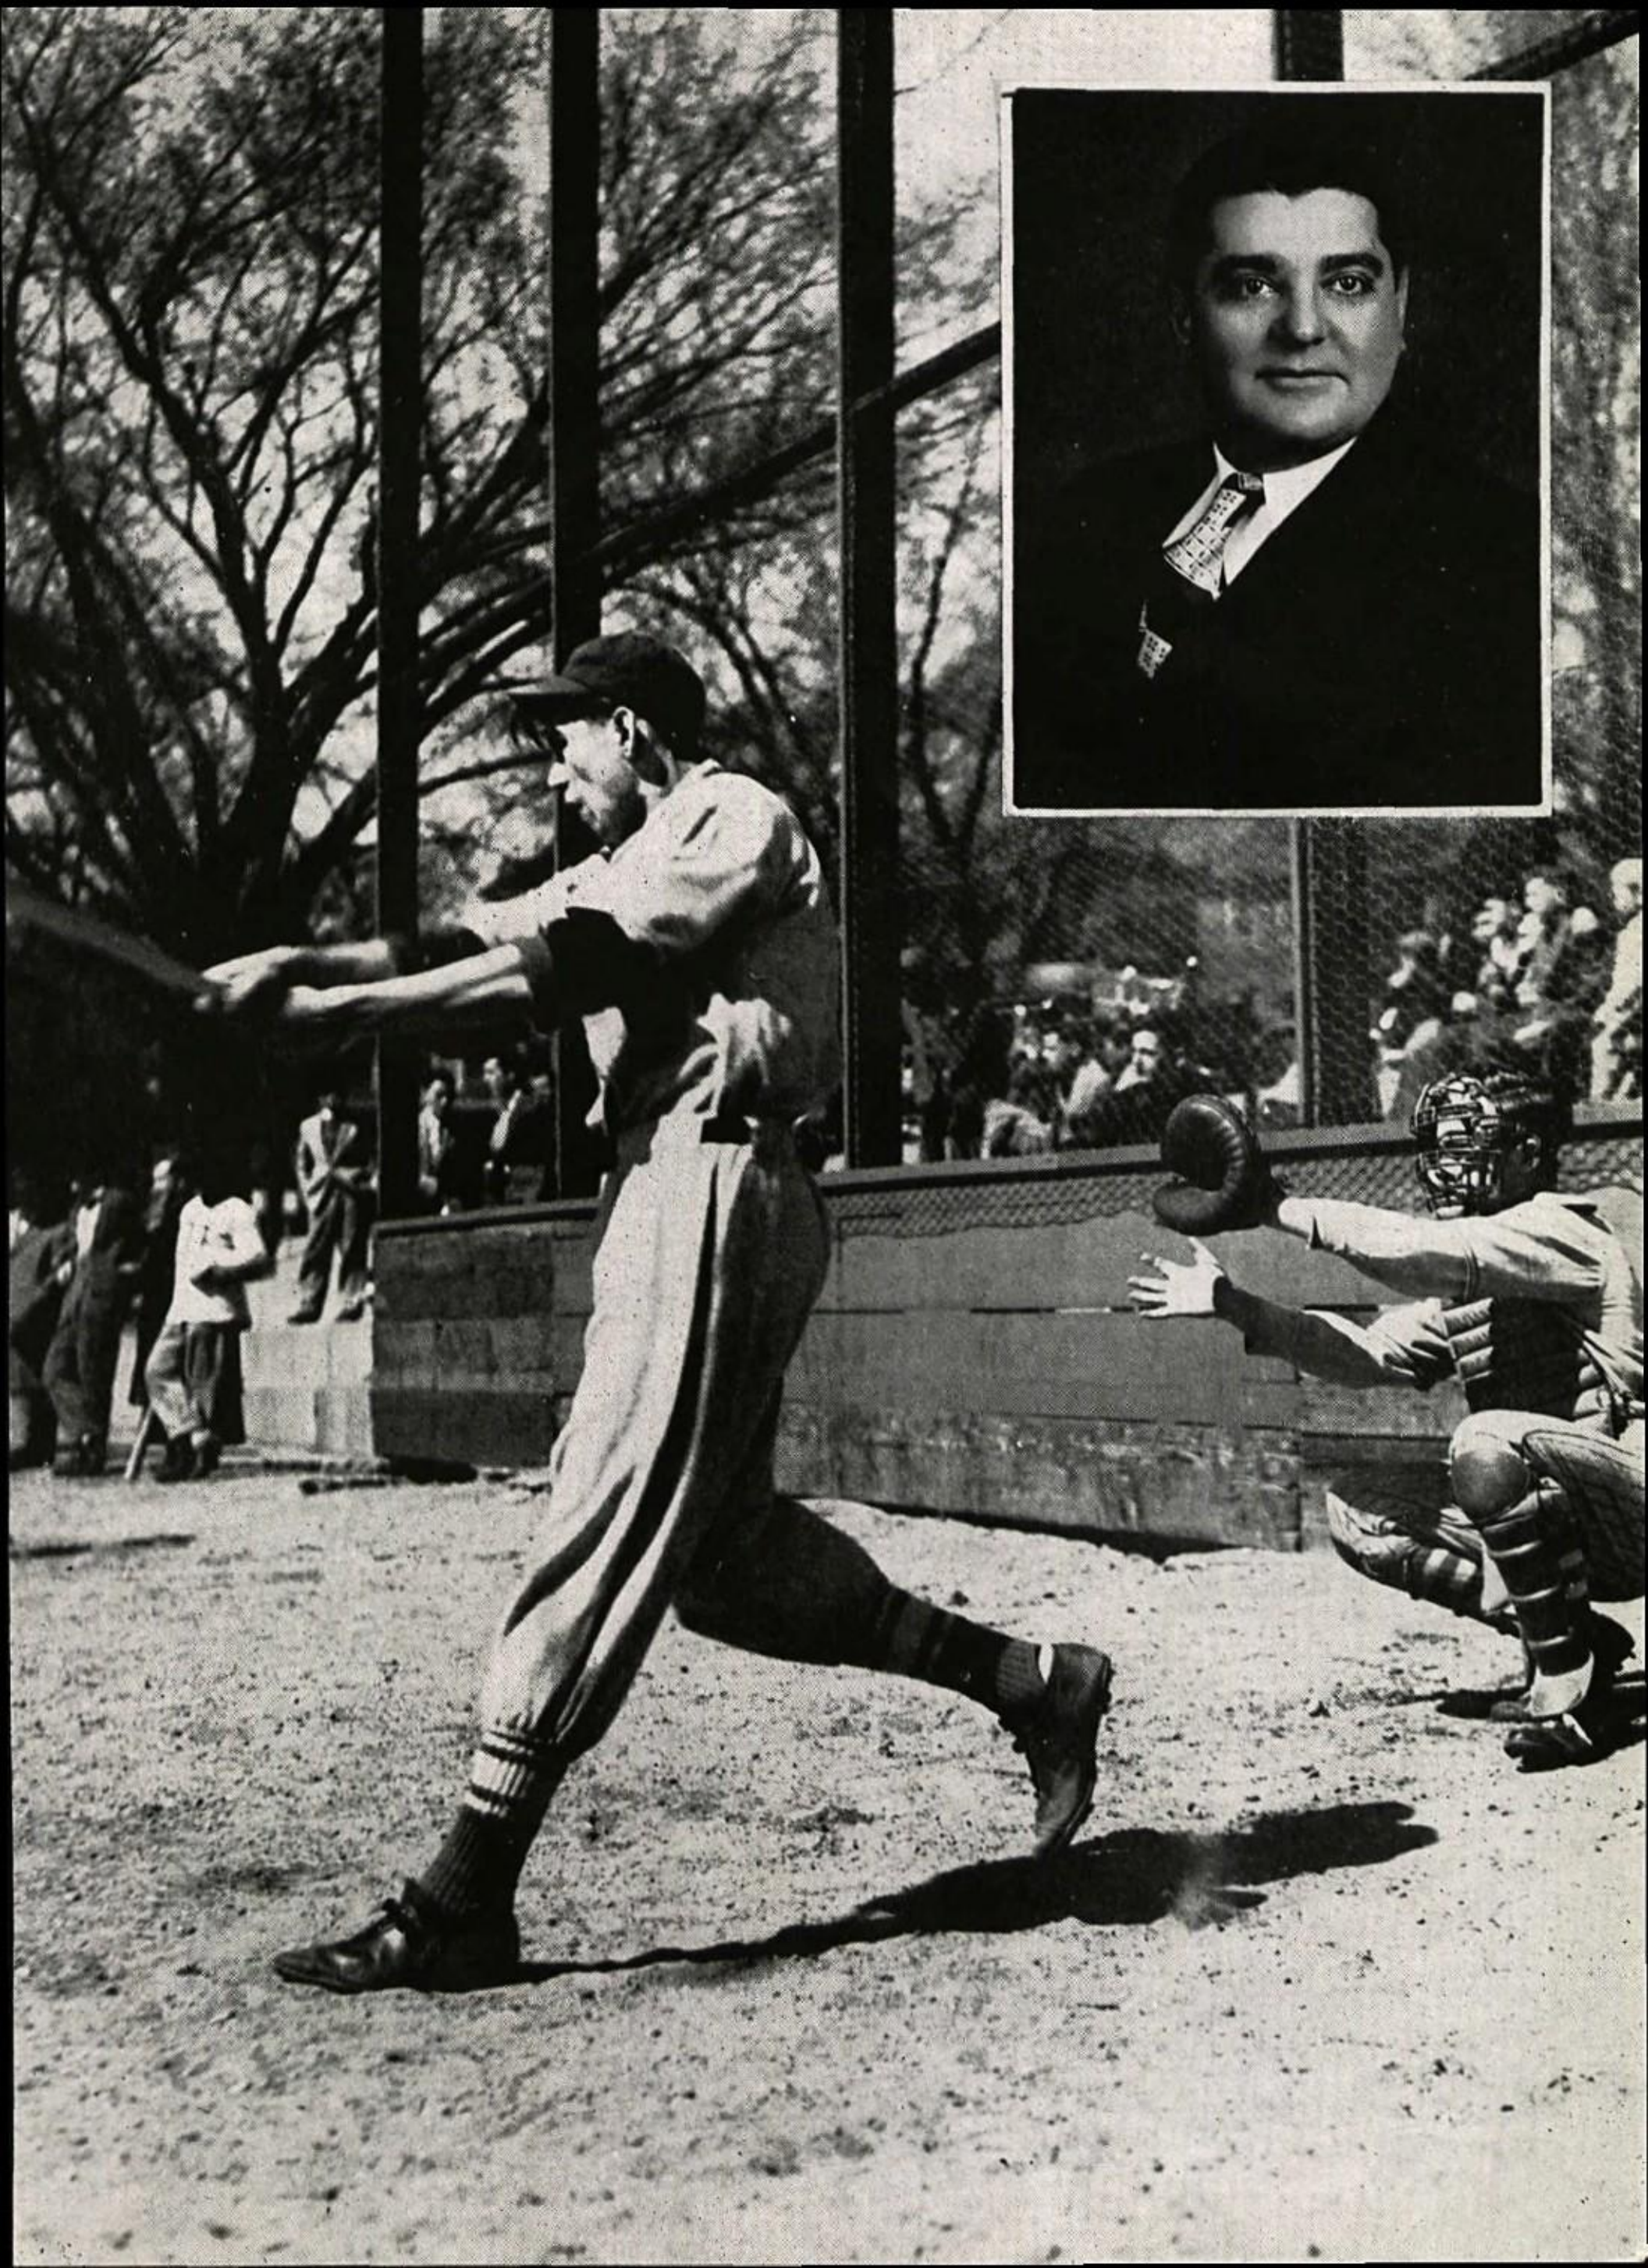

Our diminutive "Phil" Lavoie, handicapped by an uncontrollable factor: lack of height, performed chiefly for the Jayvees, and relief chores for the varsity. The poise, coolness and skill which he exhibited served to steady his younger teammates. He had a beautiful one-hand shot which he controlled almost at will.

The only non-Senior member on the squad was our stocky Sophomore center, Rene Banville. His versatility and scoring proficiency earned him a well-deserved spot on the All-star team. Besides being high scorer, Banville excelled as a capable backboard clearer and play-maker.

Our Jayvees, with Bill Labrie, Ronald Duval, Maurice Clairmont, Leonard Levasseur, Robert Gagné, and "Zeke" Valiquette gave credit to their school and themselves by winning thirteen of their eighteen games. Such an enviable record is due to the hard work, perfect harmony and splendid teamwork of one and all. With only Banville returning from the Varsity next year, many of these boys are slated to play an important role in next year's hoop destinies at Prevost.

In conclusion, let us repeat that the only hopes for a perennial leadership in sports at Prevost, will come when the gym and other athletic facilities are recognized as being an integral part of an educational setup.

FORMULA for SUCCESS

First, Graduate from High School.

Next, Take a one-year Secretarial or Accounting Course in a good Business School.

Then, Attend College, if you can.

A business or secretarial course will always be handy—at college, for taking notes or for earning personal expenses; and, if you should drop out of college for any reason (like father's death) you will have a practical training to fall back on and to earn a good living.
